DEDICATION

I dedicate this book solely to The Lord Jesus Christ, who by The Holy Spirit granted unto me access into certain spiritual truths and mysteries in the prophetic which I know were beyond my normal range of sight to be able to understand, comprehend and document for the benefit and edification of all. I also want to dedicate this book to everyone that so desire to function in the prophetic, and to those that care so much to have an understanding of how the prophetic functions and influence the earth from the heavens. The prophetic and vision have never been exclusive, preserved for a few elites, it is a realm that is open to all by God. Trance and Daydreaming is a manifestation that all are called into in God. May you not be excluded from the manifestation and functioning of the prophetic in our day and time!

Blessings to you all!
Philip Cephas

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I thank The LORD for all those sacrificial servants who have upheld my arms as we continue with endurance to run the race that is set before us. I also want to thank the pioneers who have gone before us in exploring the dimensions of Trance and Daydreaming. Where would we be without them? Books and sermons have always been my mentors—so thanks to all those who laid the foundation that we get to build upon. Lastly, I want to thank my dear family and friends. I am truly grateful to The Lord for such family and friends who love The LORD and desire to see His kingdom come on the earth.

TRANCE
DAYDREAMING

TRANCE AND DAYDREAMING

There is yet another reality that exists in the prophetic manifestation of God and this is not common to many, although it is also a normal daily experiences of the prophetic. These experiences are worthy of note and are very common in the scriptures as men of old had lots of such encounters. In times past, our forefathers and pioneers of faith had most of such encounters as recorded.

I read of Maria Woodworth-Etter and how people who were lost in worship had trance experiences in which they saw the realities of heaven in her meetings. This was amazing because when the meeting was over, the fear of God increased in the life of people. Some may not have had a trance experience, but they will have daydreaming encounters in which they were lost in thought and mind for a while as they saw a passive scenery of the glory of God.

Daydreaming

Have you ever been lost in thought and mind before? Or have you ever been absentminded before? Most of these realities are prophetic in nature and common among prophetic individuals, but most times we don't understand them to be able to relate with wisdom gaining understanding to that speaking. Daydreaming is not just a dream in the daytime, but being absentminded in time at a particular moment without being asleep.

Most people that experience daydreaming called it, lost in thought and memory. Sometimes there is a prophetic transaction going on that you are called to share and partake in time because you were absentminded, you became aware of another reality in another realm. There are times when as you discuss with people and suddenly, you lose your sense of concentration and become aware of another reality and thought pattern that your mind was not focusing on initially. People do fantasize, but when you are in the midst of a conversation and suddenly you are taken in the mind to focus on another thing that looks real and living, this is beyond fantasy. The person will not be focusing on you at the moment, but he is sure focusing on another thing that got hold of him for that moment which dwells in another realm of reality far from you both.

There is no in-between in being absent or present, it is either you are present here and absent there or you are absent there and present here. When people lose the sense of consciousness of this realm of existence, they sure are in another realm of existences. Not all go to heaven when they are away from the earth, there are other realms of realities in the heavens that people get to experience when they are not present and conscious of the earth.

God can also use daydreaming as a prophetic tool to reveal things to us as prophetic people. Many a time, we have been to places and seen people for the first time, but have the feeling and impression that we have seen them before and been to the location before. You may not have fantasized about the place or the person, but the reality was revealed to you beforehand somehow by God. When you hear a person speak about heavenly encounters and you have never had one before even in a vision, then you may find yourself fantasizing and daydreaming about the heavenly. This is possible with many other things in life too and God that dwells in the realms of the heaven and sees no impossibilities can cause you to have that encounter fulfilling the desire you daydreamed and fantasized about.

In most trance experience, people lose consciousness of time and their senses and most times your eyes may be closed, but in daydreaming your eyes are open. Nonetheless in both cases, you are away from the realm that surrounds you and in another gate or window of another realm not visible to you with the physical eyes. Visions are like living in two realities at the same time because your senses are in place in this realm, but another sense that dwells within you switches on giving you the ability to visualize and have a mental awareness of something in another realm.

Daydreaming is a normal prophetic experience like vision, dream and trance. God uses it to show us things in the language we can understand. I do daydream of a lot of things and surely many came to pass. You may call it a desire, but the passion consumed me which took over my thinking and imagination. If I tell you I will be buying you a spaceship so you can go to space tomorrow, I believe you will be consumed with the thought of that possibility. Your imagination will be actively and passionately conjuring up images of travelling on your own spaceship to space. This imagination will look so real.

*Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us.
Ephesians 3:20*

*Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.
Isaiah 1:18*

God has called us to His realm of reasoning, musing, pondering and imagination. The word imagination is “yetzer” in Hebrew and it means to have a mental picture of something in your mind which is imprinted and real. God has asked us to dare to imagine and think, ponder on anything. When you have done that, He then says that we should come with that imagination to reason with Him. When you imagine and think things as you fantasize them wanting to achieve them, don't just stop there, but come to The Lord so that you can reason with Him on those things. It is when you reason with God that He edits and restructures what is imprinted in your mind by yetzer, so that it does not turn out to be of any harm to you. Everything ever achieved in life by great people began with a thought and a yetzer in their mind. Until you imagine the possibility of a thing, then you can achieve it because you cannot grow and rise above the capacity of your mind.

What are you thinking of? And what do you want to achieve in life? If you can think it and have a mental picture of it, then you have passed the first stage. Then, you take it for further evaluation by God through reasoning together with Him so that He can edit and restructure the plan and vision to align with heaven's government and purpose for your life. As you reason with God via The Holy Spirit, the idea is screened to see if it will do more harm than good to the world before is approved by God. If what you think of will harm the world, God will not give you His support and approval. He will demand you to do another thinking, but if it will heal the world, He will release His grace and resources toward you to fulfil it. The power of imagination lies in the possibility to motivate and empower you to achieve what you daydream about. There are many people that have achieved certain things on earth just because they daydreamt and fantasized them with God. Don't just fantasize about things, always involve God into it by bringing it for proper reasoning with Him.

Some people may not even see a vision or dream about anything at night, but they have a natural likeness for something and its passion also consumes them. This will lurch them into the realm of fantasy and daydreaming. When you continue to imagine a thing for long, there is a great tendency that you will daydream about it at all times. There are people who always fantasize and daydream about being in a particular city they love. They can be absentminded while talking to you, but present minded in the city, this makes them happy and glad.

Your prosperity and calling also depends on certain geographical location in the physical. When you fantasize and daydream about a particular location, it might be a divine orchestration by God shifting and calling you to walk upon the path of destiny. People that achieve great things have a high sense of imagination. They daydream and imagine the possibility of conquering one more city or town so as to spread their influence into another country.

When you are consumed by the passion of a thing, you are bound to daydream and have visionary imagination about it. God loves people that have a passion for things. It doesn't matter what you want to achieve in life, as long as it does not contradict the principles of God, do that with the whole of your heart. I dare you to let the zeal and passion drive you and permit God to guide you by submitting your passion, desire and want for proper editing. For God will always support a structure and vision He is a part of from the beginning. You need the approval of God before you begin anything, else it will not stand and last long.

God is not against His children's daydreams and fantasies about His kingdom and purpose, but it has to be under His government and authority so that the world can be properly improved and healed. Not many people daydream in life, but as many that are called to fulfil a great destiny on the earth under God, they usually find themselves daydreaming about their assignment on earth.

You can daydream and fantasize about anything that the mind can grasp as long as it is true, noble, just, pure, lovely, of good report, virtuous and praiseworthy (Philippians 4:8). You can daydream about yourself preaching the gospel, healing the sick, on a mission field, as a doctor, as a lawyer, as a politician and as many other things. Daydreaming is like a wakeup call to push you further to fulfilling your destiny. You don't have to stop at daydreaming, but rise up with passion and zeal to fulfil that which has taken a hold of your imagination and bring it to reality on earth.

Lots of the people that achieve impossible things always say that, 'I once imagined it, I dreamt about it, and I know it will be possible' and now it is possible after a while in their lives. In the same manner, your daydreaming will become a reality if you take a step further from just fantasy.

Trance

Trance is yet another healthy prophetic experience that is common among prophetic people, but the lack of awareness and understanding makes it look like a strange manifestation. It is common in the body of Christ that most people do have spiritual experiences, but they can't accurately differentiate between those encounters whether it is a vision, dream, trance, daydream or spirit transport, these are but a few and with the many manifestations of the prophetic. The younger generation who are new to this manifestation must be informed and school aright of what to expect in the prophetic, although The Holy Spirit will still be their main educator and counsellor.

A lot of errors and mistakes can be avoided if our elders can communicate the knowledge of their dealings and discipline with God overtime. This will educate us aright on what to expect as we journey in God. Nevertheless, the younger generation must take it upon themselves to give heed to knowledge and to studying the word. It is true that in spiritual and prophetic dealing, you must be schooled by God and His Holy Spirit because the schooling of men is not sufficient for you.

The schooling of men can form the basic foundation for the journey, but in order to attain an optimum plane in God, you must be schooled again by God Himself. Most Spiritual and prophetic experiences happen and occur spontaneously, and most times God is not under any obligation to explain to you the type of experience He is giving you as long as the message is delivered. God expects you to follow through His dealings with you because He has done the same with those who have gone ahead of you. God puts in place leaders and mentors to show unto us the patterns and footprints of how they walked with Him so that we can follow suit. God is always looking for a faithful man who He can teach so that he can always teach others. Nonetheless, God will always still teach you later, but not from the basic.

Prophetic experiences are common among people and if people are informed on what to expect, they will be able to relate with God in an easy way. It is unfortunate that the younger generation never give much regard to reading and studying. God has scrolls in the spiritual realm and scrolls translated by men in the physical realm. The scribes in heaven write spiritual scrolls and the scribes on earth are given the revelation to translate and write scrolls in the physical realm for our consumption. These scrolls educate and release impartation upon the reader. No true leader fails in life because the power of the knowledge he possesses attracts success to him naturally. In the society, people that are considered great are those that solve problems that trouble the nations. The solutions to world problems are written in ancient scrolls in the heavens. We are to see the solutions to issues as written in heaven's scrolls and reveal as it relates to the present physical condition.

Every problem on the earth has its solution written in the scrolls of heavens. The problem lingers for long because there is no one found worthy to access those truth and realities written in the scrolls. People that read, study and fellowship with The Holy Spirit are given the access to see the writing of the scrolls and reveal it to men on earth. Many don't care to read, so even when they try to read in the flesh they don't see. When a solution cannot be found on the physical scrolls and literatures on the earth, then it is time to visit the spiritual library in the heavens that contain scrolls. No matter how big, difficult and complicated your problem is, that is no concern to heaven because the scrolls that contain the answer to your problems was written even before the problem befell you on earth. You can't solve spiritual issues and problems using earthly and physical means, you must take a walk into the realm of the spirit to see and read from the scrolls that contain truths and realities.

Prophetic people have found this a common reality to partake of the minute of heaven's meeting so as to share in the distribution of wisdom and sharing of scrolls. New scrolls are still being written as new discoveries and issues arise in the heaven and the earth. The shaping of the world is done by the activities and collaboration of heavenly and earthly princes that God put in places for His kingdom sake. The laws that govern the earth are being reshape, and rewritten as men transit into God discerning new discoveries and technology that will ease the suffering of mankind in time. Don't you wonder at the level of depth and wisdom exhibited by some people? These people do partake of scrolls and have insights of God's new creation in the heavens. God is still creating things for the betterment of mankind and He use humans to achieve that knowingly or unknowingly.

There may be no physical solution to a challenge on earth, but there is always a spiritual solution and answer that lies in the heavens. The heavens of God never lack the ability to proffer solution to man's need on earth. Nevertheless, heaven is a place and realm of order and protocols, you don't just ascend unto the heavenly at will to attend meetings. You must be summoned or given permission by God to come into the gathering of princes and sons to partake of the procession that God initiates.

There are times when God gives scrolls to people to eat as an impartation of new wisdom and fresh utterances. John the beloved in the book of Revelation was given a scroll to eat which gave him the ability to prophesy again the counsel of God to kings, prince, cities and nations. Most prophetic people do have encounters in which they are given scrolls or books to eat, read or look upon, this is an impartation of new wisdom and knowledge, and fresh revelation and utterances for the new season. Such encounter marks the end of a season and the beginning of a new one in the person's life.

One of the common prophetic experiences God uses to summon people into the court of heaven to attend meetings is via trance. Trance is a prophetic experience that is orchestrated by God. During such an encounter, your natural senses becomes fragile and another sense switches on and you do not have control of what you see or hear. It is like you are in an automatic mode driven by someone.

Most trance experiences are accurate and revelatory in nature. During the encounter, your spirit can communicate with God, but your senses are fragile. Most people that have trance encounters blackout in the initial and find themselves in another reality of existence. They see and hear things in that realm, uncommon revelatory insights are given to them. It is always accompanied by a release of tremendous presence of The Holy Spirit and even angelic presence at times. Trance experiences are not a usual spiritual encounter because it gets to blow your own theology about God and His creation. Just like spirit transport, this prophetic experience is energy demanding, that is why the presence of The Holy Spirit and the angelic are commonly seen during this encounter.

On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour: And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance, And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth: Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air. And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. But Peter said, not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean. And the voice spake unto him again the second time, what God hath cleansed, that call not thou common. This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven. Acts 10:9-16

Cornelius was a centurion who feared God. He was praying on a faithful day as he normally does when God sent His angel to encounter him and demand he sends for peter who is at Joppa at the moment. Peter was at Joppa praying when he fell into a trance. As he fasted and prayed in Joppa, he became hungry and was caught up in a trance where he saw something that looked like a long sheet of paper laydown from heaven to the earth. This sheet contains all kind of animals in it including those animals that were considered unclean in the Jewish culture and tradition. As Peter watched in amazement, a voice spoke to him saying, "Arise Peter, kill and eat." Suddenly, peter replied No! For I have never eaten anything unclean since I was born. God spoke to him again rebuking him not to call what He has created unclean. This encounter was not really about Peter, but for the good of Cornelius the Gentile that God wanted to honour his service and prayer. The encounter was not for Peter, but was for Cornelius. God was trying to prepare Peter's heart for the task of going to preach and witness among the Gentiles which was forbidden for them.

When it was time for the Gentiles to come into the commonwealth of Israel and become partakers of the inheritance of the saints, Peter who is the rock had to be the first to open that realm of operation for Paul to find footing and continue as an apostle called, graced and separated for the Gentiles. Peter was the apostle to the Jewish people while Paul was the apostle to the Gentiles. When Peter went to Cornelius' house as commanded by God, he witnessed about Jesus Christ and The Holy Spirit came upon the Gentiles and they all began to speak in other tongues as The Spirit gave them utterance. This happened without the laying on of hands of the apostles, God made it that supernatural so that no one, not even a Jewish apostle will glory in the salvation of the Gentiles. It was the desire of God to bring together the Jews and the Gentiles and that could only be done if the barrier of separation between them was removed. For God to achieve that, He had to give the Gentiles that same precious gift of The Father which is The Holy Spirit.

When Peter was rebuked and questioned by his fellows as to why he went to the house of a Gentile, he made them understand that God did what He did by His sovereignty. Although they didn't fully comprehend that God opened that door so as to unite the Jews and the Gentiles in Jesus Christ. Paul had an understanding because God revealed that to him when He called him when he had the encounter on his way to Damascus. In Acts of the Apostles, Ananias while praying for Saul who became Paul, God told him not to see him as a persecutor and an evil man again for He has called him and shown him what he will suffer as he witnesses to the Gentile world.

Trance still remains a vital way through which God reveals His secrets and mysteries to us even in our society today. Many people have life changing trance encounters on a daily basis. This experiences can be spontaneous and momentary in our lives. There was a day we went for a prophetic meeting with some friends. In the midst of the procession of worship and prayer, I was caught up in a trance into another realm, I saw substances like rain dropping upon people and pearls given to us. As I tasted the substance, it had no taste, but oily in nature.

Heaven's resource may not make sense to us, but they carry spiritual reality and texture that can form the structure for our sustenance in God for a season. I had a trance encounter some years ago while waiting on God through studying and praying when suddenly a wind blew around me and I changed realm immediately. I saw an angel stand by me. He stretched forth his hand towards me and my eyes were closed, then he took me to heaven. As we toured the heaven, he handed me over to another angel that angel took me a distance and handed me over to two angels. These ones clothed me with something that looked like a living white garment. Those two angels handed me over to one angel who took me to the presence of God. Immediately, I fell down like a dead man before the glory of God, but He stretched forth His hand and life entered my spirit and raised my body to stand. He spoke to me in my spirit for a while and released impartation on me. After much speaking, I was taken back to the earth realm. The same angel took me and handed me over to the two angels who handed me over to another until the last one that brought me to my body in the physical realm. I wondered and pondered why the switch in angels until I realized that it was not really about the angels, but there is a chain of command and protocol observed in heaven. The realms and sphere of the heaven are seen as territories with boundaries of jurisdiction. Not all angels function in the same realm, sphere and dimension. They communicate to each other by a chain of command from the highest to the lowest. Certain realms and spheres are not within the boundary and jurisdiction of certain angels. They can only pass through them if permitted by God. When God summons you, the message passes through a chain of command before it gets to you.

The trance experience was revelatory to me. I woke up praying in the spirit and sweating with a strange and heavy presence of The Holy Spirit. Uncommon wisdom and revelation and certain abilities in me switched on as they were activated by God. A genuine love for God is a vital precursor for such an encounter. When you love God beyond everything, He will try to speak and communicate to you because His speaking gives strength and life. The more God speaks and communicates with me, the more life and strength I receive. A deep confidence was built in me to trust God the more and dare to go further in my pursuit of more of Him. I must say that most prophetic encounters are a product of your fellowshiping with The Holy Spirit. People that fellowship with The Holy Spirit always have uncommon prophetic supernatural encounters that releases wisdom, revelation and power to them.

If you don't know more of The Holy Spirit and never cared to know of Him, you will be lacking in the experiences of the prophetic. Angelic encounters are also possible for you when you develop a constant communion and fellowship with The Holy Spirit since The Holy Spirit is a Spirit that dwell in both realms and has no limitation in both sphere. When you bond with Him during fellowshiping and communion, He will take you to places in God that you have never been before.

But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

1 Corinthians 2:10

As I fellowshiped and communed with The Holy Spirit in my inner closet, I suddenly blacked-out and a new reality was opened unto me. I am now able to see and hear God talk to me. Spirit transport and trance are common to people that commune and fellowship with The Holy Spirit by meditation. Meditating is another realm of operation in which you ponder and muse permitting God to pray through you the burden of His heart and your heart. It is like giving God a ground in your heart to sample the burden in His heart as He sees the burden in your heart, then consoles and eases the burden by answering the prayers releasing peace and strength to you.

It is common for believers to pray to God, but they never permit God to put His burden in their heart. When you meditate, you are not just musing and marinating, but you are permitting God via His Spirit to pray His burden through you. This results to much strength and power released upon you. Meditation is not a demonic activity as many are meant to believe, but meditation is another way of praying spiritually.

You learn how God speaks to your spirit and how you speak to His Spirit as you meditate. It is like a holy romance and sharing of the intent and content of heart. It takes some level of spiritual discipline to come into this realm of operation in God, but it is very possible. It is a quiet discussion with God in your heart because He has taken a place and sits within your heart. You don't have to shout, but just muse and ponder in silence about His love and how grateful you are for Him watching over you daily. You can also talk to Him about your weakness and challenges. You must be very honest with God when it comes to meditation because you have no reason to be shy or hide any secret from Him. He is already seated in your heart listening to you speak to Him. What a love affair!

Meditation is talking to The Holy Spirit that dwells inside of you. Most times, we talk to The Holy Spirit as if He is a Spirit that comes and stands face to face with us conversing, No! The Holy Spirit is within us and we communicate from the heart to Him as He witnesses to our spirit in our heart. There is The Spirit upon us; which came during our baptism in The Holy Ghost, but that Spirit went into our heart and dwells in our spirit. It becomes The Spirit within us that energizes us in our walking with God.

The Holy Spirit within us edifies and builds a spiritual fortress within us, it is a deep well spring of living waters.

He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

John 7:38-39

That water is The Spirit within us that edifies us from the inside out. In meditation, you talk to The Spirit that dwells inside of your heart. God's Spirit is not only dwelling upon us but also within. The Spirit upon is used to bless and minister to others touching their lives, but The Spirit within us edifies and consoles us as it counsels us daily. We need to put more emphasis on The Spirit of God within us as we focus on The Spirit upon us to bless others.

When you fellowship and commune, praying with The Holy Spirit, although you are edified within, the presence of the anointing and power is built and concentrated upon to bless others. When you meditate with The Holy Spirit who dwells in your heart, you are tapping into the living spring of living waters inside of your spirit to edify and build your spirit to be able to contain God and His dealings in your life. God is the one that puts that spring within us and we must take advantage of it. Lots of people never realize that they can talk to the God that dwell within them as The Spirit of Truth. When you speak and ponder the word of God to Him during meditation, He cannot but answer His word which cannot be broken and settled in heaven even before the foundations of the earth were set.

I urge you to begin the practice of meditation and fellowship, communing with The Holy Spirit that dwells within and upon you so that you can be built and edified within your heart and spirit carrying the supernatural presence of the anointing to bless others under God. Amen.

Shalom!!!

ROADMAP FOR A WEARY SOJOURNER

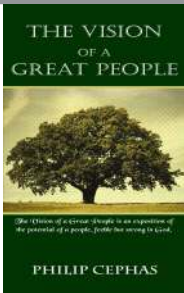

This manuscript is likened to a compass employed by a spiritual sojourner to journey to the desire destination without being weary and tired, lacking the strength, passion, zeal, courage, and the understanding to press further into the realm of light and life.

PATHWAY TO THE ANOINTING

Pathway to the anointing is not just a product of a research done in the flesh, but a personal dealing of walking with The Holy Spirit over time which has resulted to a smearing of the anointing upon my life by God.

VISION OF A GREAT PEOPLE

The vision of a great people is a life story and a fiction of a family who has been helped by God and still being helped by Him. Among many systems of God expansion upon the face of the earth, a man is pivotal.
